Governments contribute to rescue van

The federal and provincial governments have given much needed assistance to the Town of Elk Point for the purchase of the new rescue vehicle and rescue equipment for use by the Elk Point Volunteer Fire Department.

MLA Ed Stelmach, Vegreville - Viking, was in Elk Point on Monday, November 22 to present a cheque for $28,523.70 to representatives of the Town and Fire Department. Funding came from the Joint Emergency Preparedness Program (JEPP) and the Regional Response Improvement Program, with JEPP contributing $19,015.80, the provincial government $9,507.90 and the Town of Elk Point the balance of funds for the $38,031.60 purchase. The rescue vehicle, as now equipped, represents an approximate value of $80,000.

"The assistance provided by the federal government to purchase this rescue vehicle and rescue equipment will result in an improved level of emergency preparedness and response for the Town of Elk Point and its mutual aid partners during emergencies," said Peter Trynchy, Minister of Alberta Public Safety Services.

"It is important that all communities in Alberta, when faced with an emergency, have access to equipment held by other communities in their region. In this way the ability to provide an effective, quick and efficient response to an emergency is greatly improved," concluded Trynchy.

MLA Stelmach later presented $25,426.50 to the County of St. Paul under the same programs, toward the County's purchase of a Regional Communications System, which will also be a substantial help in emergency situations.

Rezoning bylaw 542/93 passed

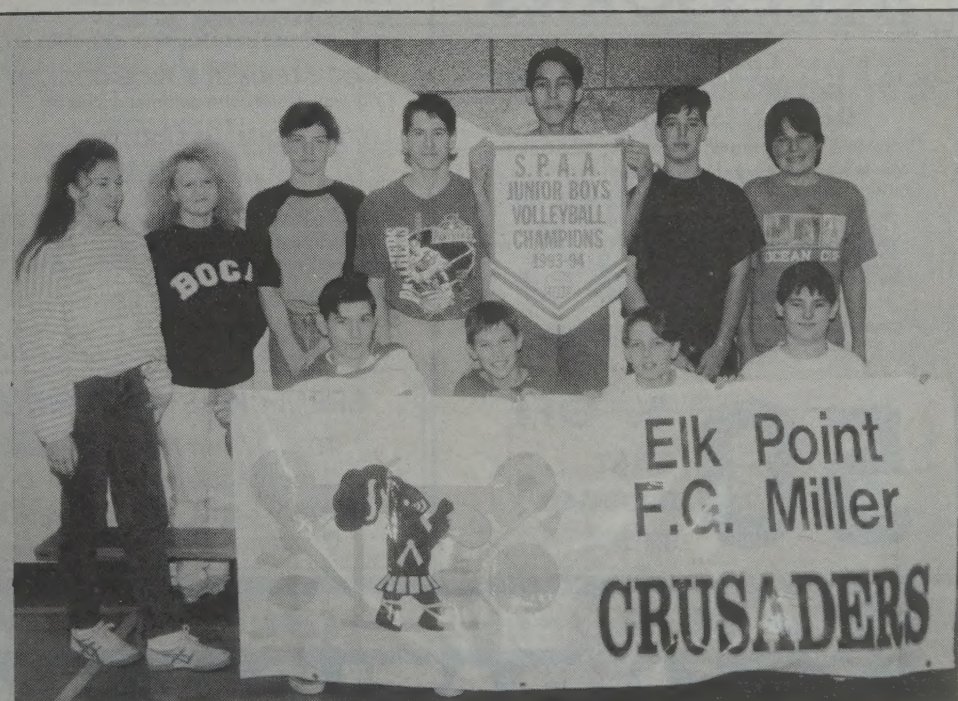

Rezoning Bylaw 542 / 93 was given third reading at a special meeting of Town Council last Monday.

Second reading of the bylaw was passed at the November 15 regular meeting but Mayor Buck chose to defer the final reading for a week in order for Council to make sure they wished to rezone the area, located on the east side of 51 Street and north of Railway Avenue. He cited the need to look at the move on a long term basis, as he felt this would restrict growth of the business area if the community had another period of growth such as it has experienced in the past decade. The proposed rezoning would result "changing the whole direction of our town," Buck said at the earlier meeting. "It needs more thought."

Council, on the other hand, felt rezoning would accommodate the changing needs and changing times within the community, and voted accordingly to pass the final reading of the bylaw.

Recorded votes were requested for both readings, and in both cases, Mayor Buck voted against the bylaw while the remainder of Council voted in favor of its passage.

CRUSADERS BRING HOME COUNTY CUP - F. G. Miller Crusaders brought home the St. Paul Athletic Association banner after defeating Frog Lake in the finals of the Junior Boys Championship in Mallaig. The FGM Junior Girls lost out to Racette in semi final action at Regional High School, St. Paul. Story and more pictures, Page 6.

Pan Canadian plans increased drilling

Pan Canadian Petroleum Limited held two open houses for residents of the Elk Point-King George and Heinsburg areas last week to report on the company's activities during the past year and their plans for 1994.

Area Superintendent Bryan Campbell said Pan Canadian has just completed their capital program for 1993, which included drilling 75 additional wells and upgrading their plant to double its previous capacity. The plant is now much more efficient, and upgraded scales have significantly decreased the turnaround time for trucks hauling product to and from the plant.

Their recent fall safety awareness program, which focused on general safety practices, is "just part of being good neighbors" with the community, Campbell said. Safety courses are important to the company, which prides itself on its safety record.

A significant amount of road surfacing has been done, some with the usual sand and slop oil mixture, and some with the new blended product cold mix. Maps showing the area where these products have been installed, and also environmental studies of the products, were on display at the open houses.

Maps showing the routes used by Pan Canadian's own and contract vehicles were also on display, as were a number of geological samples.

Production Manager Dennis Chorney explained Pan Canadian's 1994 business plan. Pan Canadian is a very large mineral rights land holder, and focuses on four lines of business: natural gas, conventional oil, liquids such as propane, and heavy oil. The area between Elk Point and Provost is the centre of their heavy oil activity, and is responsible for half of their production.

The company's efforts to become more active have led them to be a more prominent operator in heavy oil. Rapid growth has taken place, with production volumes more than doubling to over 100,000 barrels per day, during the past 2½ years. The biggest part of that growth, Chorney said, is in the Elk Point to Provost area.

A considerable amount of earthwork is being done in the Frog Lake area at the present time, and a total of 120 new wells are in the 1994 drilling program. Chorney said it will take $30 million worth of activity to ready those wells for production. "We intend to continue with this pace for some time," Chorney said, "as long as oil prices cooperate."

This news pleased service company personnel in the audience, as did the information that Pan Canadian will accept tenders from other operators not currently in the company's employ. Apparently some companies were missed in last year's tendering process, when the company was caught unprepared for the increasing level of activity.

And yes, Pan Canadian employees do believe in the company, to the extent that they buy shares of its stock. Spokesman John O'Donnell said he expects the company to continue to do well. "I have shares, everyone at this table has shares." Bryan Campbell added that employees can now buy shares through a payroll plan, which makes being a stakeholder much simpler.

Elk Point Mayor Ed Buck was among those attending the King George meeting, and complimented Pan Canadian on being good corporate citizens whom he looks forward to working with in the future.

Frog Lake School takes time to remember

Students and staff at Frog Lake School participated in a special Remembrance Day ceremony on Thursday, November 11. The program opened with a poem written by Sgt. Muzzeral entitled "Heed Their Call," read by Master of Ceremonies, Mr. Jim Purdy.

The kindergarten class performed a skit, "Where Have All The Flowers Gone," accompanied by the Senior High School Choir. The ceremony included various poems and readings by students from the different classes, including John McCrae's famous poem "In Flanders Fields."

The Grade Six class provided readings on "What Remembrance Day Means To Me." Grade Eight students offered their perspective on "Life On The Home Front" as they portrayed the ones left behind - the wife and children missing their husband and father who has gone off to war.

The program concluded with a sound and light show - "Sky Pilot" enacted by the Grade Seven class under the technical supervision and direction of Mr. R. Pilisko.

SANTA'S HELPERS - Allan Frankiw presented a $100 donation from Norcen Energy Resources and Superior Propane to Susan Frisby of the Elk Point Lioness Club toward the Club's Santas Anonymous campaign. Last year, Santas Anonymous helped 24 families in the area to have a merrier Christmas. You can help too by depositing new, unwrapped gifts for children and non-perishable food items in the collection boxes, or by making a cash donation at either of Elk Point's banks.

WOMEN'S NETWORK

A Women's Network is being established in this area. The intent of the network is to provide an informal and fun meeting time for women to discuss common issues. Some of the possibilities include: sharing and discussion; speakers on women's health issues; education, current affairs and the like; discussion on book reviews and publications relating to women; providing support for each other; sharing experiences and strengths; publishing a monthly newsletter; providing physical, spiritual, mental and emotional balance in our lives; and generally to laugh, enjoy and have a lot of fun! An open invitation is extended to women who are interested in participating. The next meeting will be held at the Town of St. Paul FCSS Office at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, December 14, 1993. Call 724-3800 or 645-5311 for more information.

COVENANT OF RESPECT

I Respect -
Your right to be equally heard.
Your ownership of thought - I will not speak for you.
Your freedom to speak, choose, see and think - I will not read your mind.

I Will -

Be now with you as a person I really am - I will not be phony!

Take responsibility for how I see things.

Admit my mistakes without grovelling.

In no way hamper your freedom to be you. If with me you are you then I have been blessed.

(From 'Caring Enough To Be Heard' by David Augsburger)

LESSONS IN SPORT ARE LESSONS IN LIFE

For children, lessons in sport are lessons in life:

- If children see all the players on the team being given a turn, they will learn to treat people equally and fairly.

- If children learn the importance of rules in a game they will learn to respect and value rules in society.

- If children are rewarded for playing fairly, they will learn the value of honesty and integrity.

With the hustle and bustle of the Christmas shopping season upon us, it is difficult not to get wrapped up in the spirit of giving and, unfortunately, the spirit of desire. Most people with children will tell you their kids have a Christmas wish list a mile long, and by the time Christmas day arrives, the kids have forgotten half of what they asked for in their frenzy.

Most people will agree with this hypothesis. Christmas has gotten out of hand with the main focus being on materialism. This is nothing new, business has been cultivating the perception for years. One can not fault business, though, after all they are in a business to make money and the Christmas shopping season provides the make-it or break-it margin for many a small business owner. The shopping frenzy also fuels the economy, which helps keep a great number of us employed.

It's likely impossible for society to turn back the clock to the simpler days of Christmas, at least in the near future. What we can do is try to recapture a little of that ol' time Christmas.

Get back to the real spirit of giving. The Lioness Santas Anonymous Campaign is currently collecting money, food and gifts for Christmas hampers which will be given out in and around Elk Point to families in need. Your donations will be gladly accepted and could make some child's Christmas truly merry. The deadline date for donations is Wednesday, December 15, 1993.

ELK POINT CHILD CARE SERVICES RESPONDS TO CHILD SEPARATION ANXIETY

When parents are required to leave their children with a child care giver, some children have a hard time leaving their parents. What may happen is that "a big scene" is made by the child and the results are that the child and parent are both upset. The reason this occurs is that children have a method of expressing their discomfort at being separated from the person to whom they are attached. In other words, separation behaviors say "I LOVE MY PARENTS." Children have a method of communicating their needs and "a big scene" is one way the child may say "I LOVE MY PARENTS." When children are left they experience anxiety. All Anxiety, separation included, serves as a psychological and physiological preparation for "danger" (perceived or real).

T. Berry Brazetton has an excellent but simple four step parent separation formula that parents can use in helping their child prepare for separation.

1. Prepare the child at home for separation - in other words, explain to the child what will be happening with the child and with the parent during the time they will be separated from one another.

2. Parents need to accept the healthy outburst on parting. Remember the child is experiencing anxiety and loves their parents.

3. Parents need to promise the child that they will return.

4. Upon returning, the parent needs to remind the child of the promise that was made and that they were able to keep the promise.

If you would like to talk about this topic further, or if you are a parent in need of child care, or if you are a mother at home who is interested in caring for children in your home, feel free to call Deanna Easthope, Coordinator of Elk Point Child Care Services, at 724-3933 or 724-3800.

The Hunter's Wife's Lament

John Drobot

Stoney Lake Poet Laureate

When the odor of duck and goose roasts
Scents our house from cellar to dome,
Oh, those are the days when I get the urge
To take leave of my happy home.

But Daddy must a-hunting go
So this winter we will be fed -
The story he read in Outdoor Life
Put some ideas into his head.

But unlike the hunters in Grandpappy's time
Who with musket alone stalked his prey,
Our Daddy must have a fur lined hat
And regalia which costs a month's pay.

He neglects his business and hounds sports stores,
A collector's gleam in his eye,
Muttering fiercely in his beard
"I'll find some shells or know why!"

His talk is all guns and scope sights,
And blinds built by the creek,
He floats his boat in the slough
Just to make sure it doesn't leak.

The day is here - goodbye, sweet sleep -
The alarm goes off at four -
I can't understand after eating one goose
Why a soul would hunt for more.

I've soaked goose in lemon, or boiled in wine,
But it seems, what is the use?
Try as hard as I will to disguise the birds,
They always taste just like goose.

After a week of these pinfeathered friends
I read Donald Duck with a sneer.
Visions of pork chops and T-bone steaks,
But Daddy brings home a deer.

Winter snows melt and spring's in the air,
I've shared my game meat with the cat,
Yet some friends send a moose roast
With moose hairs in the rancid fat.

When Gabriel blows his golden trumpet
To call forth his earthly hosts,
I hope he awakens last of all
The friends who send venison roasts.

But Daddy must a-hunting go,
And sleep on the hard, cold ground,
No hardship's too great for our winter meat
When it costs us fifty dollars a pound.

Taking the stress out of Christmas

Does the Christmas season make you feel like the Grinch? You're not alone. For many people, the holiday season is nothing like those scenes on the front of Christmas cards. It can be a very stressful and lonely time.

The safety authorities at St. John Ambulance remind you that stressed-out people are injury prone. Here are some tips on how to take the stress out of this season.

Jingle Nerves!

You know you're feeling stressed out when you're irritable, anxious and grouchy. You might not be able to sleep, or you might feel like sleeping all the time.

Stress can cause headaches, joint and muscle pain, and digestive problems. It can also give you peptic ulcers, arthritis, emotional problems, high blood pressure and cardiac disease. Stress is often a factor in heart attacks.

And stress takes a long time to work its way through your system. Some major effects can show up two years after a stressful period in your life.

The hustle and bustle

Leaving everything to the last minute means you get caught up in the hustle and bustle of counter lineups and traffic jams. Buy your gifts early and get those cards sent away in plenty of time. Set up a budget for your gifts - and follow it. Worrying about those January bills can be hazardous to your health.

If you're travelling over the holidays, remember that stress is definitely a factor in car collisions - and 85 percent of collisions can be avoided by the driver. Try driving at off-peak times and choose less-congested routes. Plan to arrive at your Christmas parties ahead of time so minor delays won't make you want to deck the halls - or the driver in front of you! Don't drink and drive. And if you're too tired or stressed out to drive, get someone else to. Or take a cab.

Rudolph and other red noses

'Tis the season to be jolly. So enjoy those parties and get-togethers - without going overboard. Alcohol makes you forget things in the short term. But in the long run, it causes depression. Research proves that consuming too much alcohol increases the effects of stress on your body.

Silent nights

The forced gaiety of the season can be particularly hard on you if you're lonely or have recently gone through a personal tragedy. Suicide rates rise dramatically during the Christmas season.

Be prepared for the situations that cause you stress and figure out how to avoid them or enjoy them. Take a vacation to break from your usual routine. Make plans with friends in advance so you don't find yourself alone.

Be one of Santa's elves

If you can't geat the season, join it. Become one of Santa's elves by volunteering with organizations that are busy spreading Christmas cheer. Helping others is a great way to work off stress and put your problems in perspective.

Exercising is another great way to burn off stress. But make sure you're eating and sleeping well too. It's tempting to drown your sorrows in holiday baking, but overindulging will only increase your stress levels.

New Year's resolutions

Why not add stress reduction to your list of New Year's resolutions? Take charge of your life and adapt to changes that come along. Talk about your feelings with people you trust. Getting things off your chest reduces strain and helps you see things in a better light. You have to face your problems - one at a time - not run from them.

St. John Ambulance wishes you a stress-free holiday season and new year.

The Ukrainian Hour is back!!

Dear Editor:

When this young man heard that the famed and loved "Ukrainian Hour" was coming to an end, he said "No way!" I contacted the program's host of 26 year, Robert J. Tompkins, to discuss the problem. A petition was drawn up and nearly 8000 signatures were collected.

It is for the memories of the pioneers, our parents of today, and our children of tomorrow that the preservation of this program was undertaken.

Many individuals, groups and Ukrainian bands worked extremely hard to achieve this goal. As a Ukrainian Canadian, I am glad to have played my part in saving this worthwhile and necessary program, our program.

The program will be aired initially on Sunday, December 5, 1993 at 8 p.m. on 630 CHED Radio.

Christmas courses at further ed

It's beginning to look a lot like Christmas at Elk Point Further Ed! We have a whole series of great courses coming up to help you get ready for the big day!

Our youngest participants enjoyed the Kids' Crafts for ages 5 to 7 last Sunday afternoon, now we have two sessions for the 8-and-up age group, who may participate on December 5 or December 12, from 1 to 4 p.m.

Want to know what Santa has on his list for you? Tomorrow night, December 1, Gloria Zarowny will show you how to make a Little Wizard Santacomplete with crystal ball. The session goes 6:30 to 10:30 p.m.

Try crafting some Quick and Easy Christmas Projects for decorations or gift items at our December 7 course, 7 to 10 p.m., instructed by Lee Johnson.

Take a peek into Santa's Workshop which has been rescheduled from Saturday, December 4 to Thursday, December 9, 7 to 10 p.m. You will learn to make a 'Fimo Santa' with Sharon Kuhn, 'Entertaining With Alberta Made Foods' with Sharon Stollery and construct a 'Holiday Basket' with Millie Orr. All this for the reduced price of $4.50, plus materials.

We have two more Brown Bag Sessions to enjoy before the Christmas break - 1 Christmas Appetizers with Suzanne Landiak, at noon tomorrow (December 1) and Christmas Drums with Sharon Kuhn on December 8, from 12:07 to 12:43 p.m.

To register for any of the above courses or for more information, call Verona Lea at 724-4101 or 724-2269.

Thunder splits a pair

Ron Dunlop
Elk Point Thunder

The Midget Thunder split a pair of home games this weekend, defeating the Lloydminster Moose Lodge Blazers 7-6 Friday night in a highly entertaining game.

Ricky Robinson opened the scoring at the 7:22 mark of the first with Travis Stafford drawing the lone assist. Cody Lawrence made it 2-0 six minutes later with Cody Lawrence and Ian Kozicky assisting. Travis Stafford made it 3-0 fifteen seconds into the second period and Ian Kozicky assisted on that one also.

Lloydminster got on the board with a power play goal at 4:18 of the second. While both teams exchanged a pile of goals in the second, Thunder never gave up their lead. It was 6-5 after two periods. Jacques deMoissac, Kyle Lawrence and Kyle Sakowski were the other marksmen in the second period, with Robyn Moroziuk, James Makowecki, Kyle Lawrence and Danny Flett assisting.

Cody Lawrence scored what proved to be the game winner at the halfway mark of the third, and the Blazers made it interesting by scoring with 2:45 left. It was a very physical game and there were a lot of bumps and bruises.

Ryan Hahn won his second pizza of the year between the pipes in the shootout contest. He was facing Joey Farebrother and Peter Danyluk. Ryan's dad, George, was the contestant in the "Shoot To Win" contest and came close to winning the $100 bill. Don Anderson won $61 in the 50-50 draw.

On Sunday the Cold Lake Cougars provided the opposition, a team that Thunder had totally dominated in the league opener back in October when they beat them 8-2. It looked like history would repeat itself but Cold Lake never quit, and overcame a 4-1 deficit to tie it up with 4 minutes left in the second. Thunder made it 5-4 before the period ended but Cold Lake eventually won the game 8-7. In the last three games, Thunder has blown three goal leads and this time it cost them.

One of the highlights of this game was the play of Ricky Robinson. He was a one man wrecking crew, scoring 4 of Thunder's 7 goals.

Next home game is this Friday night at 8:15 p.m. when the Lac La Biche Clippers are in town.

Elks down the Senators 7-5

Elk Point Elks visited Vermilion Senators on Friday, November 26 and brought home a hard-earned win.

Layne Gauchier, assisted by Clayton Holthe, opened the scoring for the Elks, but two Vermilion goals brought the home team ahead. Mike Boratynec tied it up off an assist by Tyson Stafford, but another Vermilion goal saw the Senators leading 3-2 at the end of the period.

The Elks dominated the scoring in the second period, with goals by Greg Desaulniers and Dwayne Karbashewski, assisted by Allan Loughran, Kerry Loughran, Mike Boratynec and Corey Laboucane, bringing the Elks out in front.

The final period saw two Vermilion goals rapidly answered by the Elks. Tyson Stafford, off an assist by Kerry Loughran, scored the first of these and Layne Gauchier, off assists by Tyson Stafford and Mike Boratynec, scored the second. Greg Desaulniers scored an unassisted goal with three minutes to go for a final score of 7-5 in the Elks' favor.

Fair play code for parents

Parents... you are the ultimate influence. Encourage fair play as a positive role model by:

- supporting your child's efforts and good conduct - win or lose

- understanding the issues, and talking with your child

- setting a good example, at home and in the stands

Code for Parents:

1. I will not force my child to participate in sports.

2. I will remember that my child plays sports for his or her enjoyment, not for mine.

3. I will encourage my child to play by the rules and to resolve conflicts without resorting to hostility or violence.

4. I will teach my child that doing one's best is as important as winning, so that my child will never feel defeated by the outcome of a game or event.

5. I will make my child feel like a winner every time by offering praise for competing fairly and trying hard.

6. I will never ridicule or yell at my child for making a mistake or losing a competition.

7. I will remember that children learn best by example. I will applaud good plays / performances by both my child's team and their opponents.

8. I will never question the officials' judgement or honesty in public.

9. I will support all efforts to remove verbal and physical abuse from children's sporting activities.

10. I will respect and show appreciation for the volunteer coaches who give their time to provide sport activities for my child.

A fight to the finish at Junior High volleyball finals

Olli Megley

Last Tuesday's junior high SPAA League Volleyball Championships proved to be spectator delights. Outstanding quality of play and close matches were a bonus to all who attended and participated.

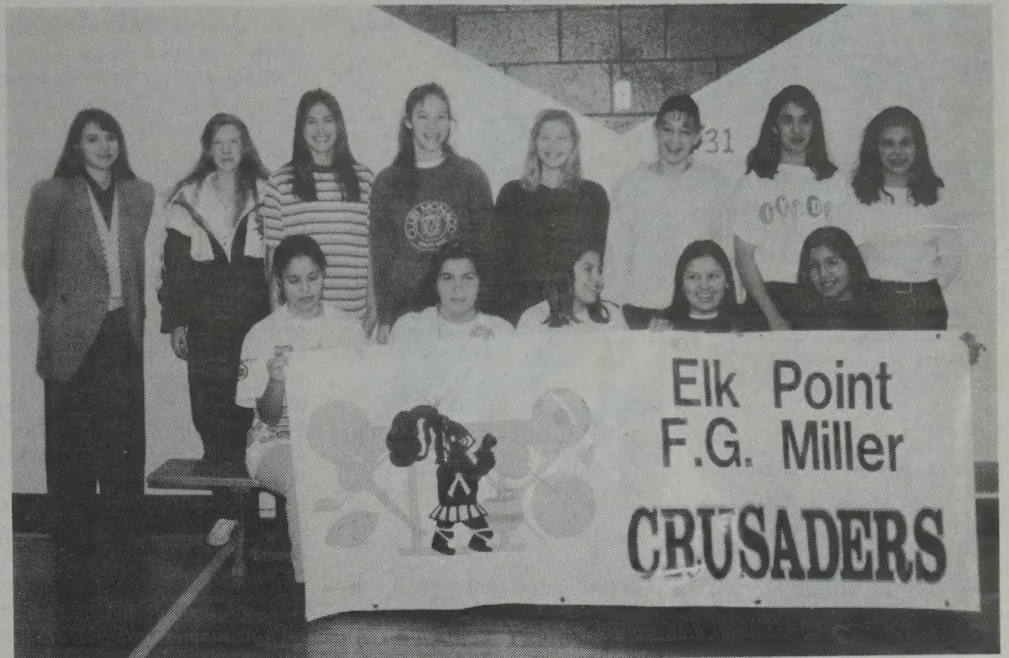

The girls' competition at Regional was capital C-L-O-S-E! But when the cheering subsided, it was the G.A. Girls Panthers who were left brandishing the championship banner. At Mallaig in the boys battle, it was the Elk Point Crusaders who marched home the victors.

The girls' semi-final matchups were G.A. vs Mallaig, and Elk Point vs Racette. The Raiders took the Crusaders two straight, 15-7, 15-7, while G.A. and Mallaig went to three games with Mallaig winning the first 16-14, but dropping the next two. This set up arch-rivals, Racette and G.A., for the finals. (In regular league play both teams had finished at the top of their conference). Racette's hitting crew of Nicole and Jessica Cardinal did their job at the net, but they were not enough to achieve the win. The game did not have more than a two-point spread until the end, when a few costly missed serves by Racette, and some excellent setting from G.A.'s Janice Makokis, and powerful hitting by Tamara Pilipchuk, won the game for G.A., 15-12. Game two was a "screamer". At 13-13, 14-14 it was a treat for the spectators, who were given an excellent show of volleyball: strong hitting, strong (if somewhat erratic) serving, unexpected strategies, fine passing - a credit to this level of the game. In a very exciting finish, G.A. struck gold first, winning 16-14.

Meanwhile the Elk Point and Mallaig boys were engaged in serious semi-final combat. The match went to three games, two of which were 15-13 in favor of Mallaig. Elk Point earned their berth in the final by defeating Heinsberg in two, 15-6, 15-13.

Coach Twila Rainboth of Elk Point said of her team, "It was a real team effort. Their hearts were in it." The first game went strongly in favor of Elk Point, 15-6. Frog Lake rallied in the second game and kept it close, but in the end they succumbed to the hard hitting of Marcel Jenkins and Conway Roscoe, who received excellent sets from Bruce Poiras. The championship game ended 15-12.

STILL SMILING AT SEASON'S END - The F. G. Miller Crusaders lost out in semi-finals at the Junior Girls' St. Paul Athletic Association championship last week, but can still look back on an enjoyable season.

Dave King to address PTA

Former Education Minister Dave King will address the F. G. Miller High School Parent Teacher Association's December 9th meeting. His topic for the evening will be 'The Effects of Cutbacks to Education.' All members of the community are invited, as well as parents of students.

King is now the Executive Director of the Public School Boards' Association of Alberta, a non-profit organization which represents the province's public school boards in providing leadership to public education in Alberta.

King served as a MLA from 1971 to 1986, and besides his term as Minister of Education, also took on the roles of Minister of Technology, Research and Telecommunication and Legislative Secretary during that 15 year period. He also has experience in merchant banking and in social science research.

As Minister of Education, King was responsible for a number of major initiatives, including the establishment of Provincial Diploma Examinations for Grade 12, the educational Management Finance Plan, the teacher internship program, and the Council of Alberta Teaching Standards, which sets standards for and oversees the evaluation of all teachers in the province.

Basketball season gets underway

Basketball season is getting underway for the students at F. G. Miller High School this week, with two exhibition games as well as the first league games on the schedule.

Tomorrow, the Senior Boys will take on Frog Lake in exhibition action, while on Thursday they will play host to the Heinsburg squad in another exhibition game.

League play starts December 7, when the Regional High School Saints will be in town to take on both the Senior Boys and Senior Girls teams.

Paul Hann visits students

Singer and songwriter Paul Hann paid an unforgettable visit to Elk Point Elementary School last Wednesday, and provided a very entertaining interlude for the students who attended his two performances.

The cold outdoors was forgotten as the atmosphere was warmed by applause and audience participation in many of Hann's songs. Old time favorites, such as Turkey In The Straw, vied with his original compositions and 1950s rock 'n' roll for the most crowd pleasing. A totally puzzling magic trick was another highlight of the session.

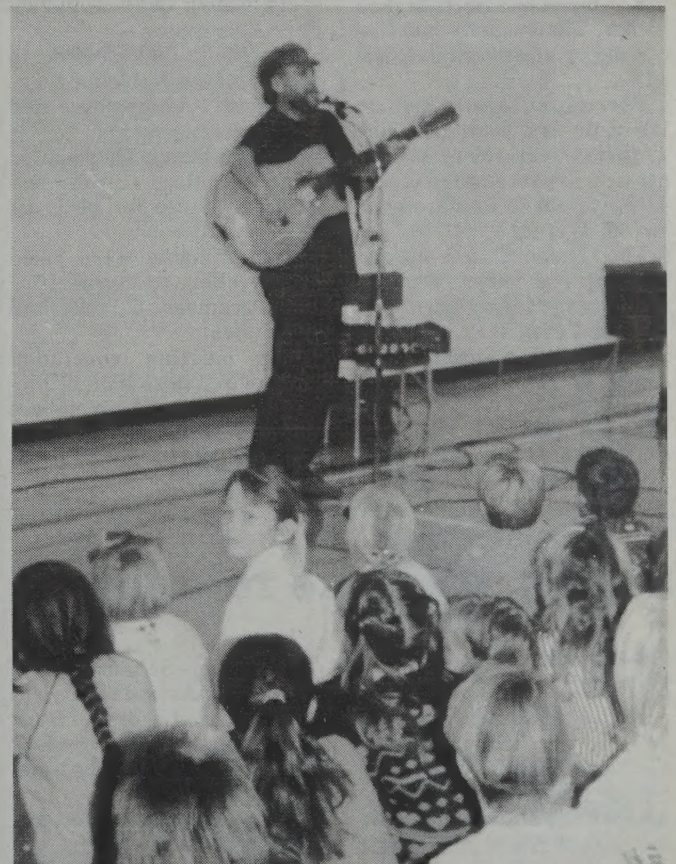

Hann has been singing most of his 45 years, beginning with his school's choir, and learned to play the guitar at age 14. He has been playing and singing ever since, and says he is lucky to have a job he enjoys. The father of two moved to Canada from England in 1967, and now lives in Victoria, BC.

Hann began his entertainment career playing for adults, but was asked one day to entertain his wife's school class. He found he enjoyed playing for children, and now does that exclusively. His television show, Paul Hann and Friends, is very popular for after-school viewing. His 14 year old son entertains with him from time to time as a bass guitar player.

Hann said he has been making his living by singing for the past 23 years, and "I hope to continue for another 23." Those who enjoyed his performances last Wednesday hope so too.

PAUL HANN AND FRIENDS - Television entertainer, singer and songwriter Paul Hann made some new friends at Elk Point Elementary School last week when he visited for two fun-filled performances.

Christmas Extravaganza

Friday, December 10, 6 p.m. - 11 p.m.

FUN FOR THE FAMILIES - The youngsters enjoyed video films at the Masonic Lodge Open House, which was designed to familiarize the families of the members with "Where Dad goes on Tuesday nights."

4-H Multi Club news

The Elk Point 4-H Multi Club started off their November 17 meeting with volleyball games. The business meeting carried on afterward in Room 14.

There are 15 members in the club this year; 6 canine projects, 7 veterinary science projects, 3 yearling heifer and 4, 2-year-old heifer projects, and 11 steer projects.

The Canine Club is up and running. They meet Tuesday nights in the Riding Barn.

The Veterinary Science Project will run with the guidance of the St. Paul Vet Clinic.

Weigh Day for the Beef Club was held November 14.

David Naber and James

Babenek volunteered to do the Alberta Wheat Pool radio spots. Robyn Danyluk gave a Farm Fair report.

The Multi Club decided to donate gifts suitable for teens to Santas Anonymous, and made arrangements for a Christmas Party. They plan to sing Christmas carols and decorate a tree for birds by the hospital.

Arrangements were made for travelling to Myrnam for the December 5 volleyball tournament.

The meeting concluded with an active session of program planning. The members came up with lots of great ideas - looks like it may be an eventful year!

Saddle Slickers reorganize

Amanda Biensch
Club Reporter

Our reorganizational meeting was held on November 23 at the F. G. Miller High School. Eleven members were present. We started our meeting with a poem, "My Dad's Advice."

Ruth Purdy congratulated Diane Babcock on her 4-H Project and Record Book which won first place at the club level.

We had our election of officers: our president is Jaylene Purdy. Our vice president is Diane Babcock. Our secretary is Carla Domstad. Our treasurer is Jamie Schnurer. Our reporter is Amanda Biensch. The General Leader is Ruth Purdy. Our Project Leaders include Debbie Poulin and Bert Neilsen.

We picked names for our Christmas draw. We will exchange them on December 5 at our Christmas Party at Purdy's residence, our annual cookie drive.

Our meeting concluded with lunch.

Anyone interested in joining the Saddle Slickers 4-H Light Horse Club may phone Ruth Purdy at 724-3078 for more information.

Lodge hosts families

St. George's Masonic Lodge hosted an open house for the spouses and children of members this past Sunday, aimed at "letting the kids know where Dad goes Tuesday nights," according to member Bob McRae. He explained that the Lodge's purpose, in a nutshell, was the self improvement of its members.

Fellow member Jay Byer added that the open house enabled the lodge to "get more information out to the public. It's nice to have the families become comfortable with the lodge." Another facet of the Masonic operation is their higher education bursary program, which is administered by their Grand Lodge.

The afternoon included very brief introductory remarks, a video explaining the basics of the lodge, and a question and answer session, as well as plenty of time for exploring the lodge room and visiting with the other families. Treat bags were handed out to each child at the end of the afternoon to make the day complete.

St. George's Lodge has 60 members, primarily from the Elk Point, St. Paul and Bonnyville regions, although some members now live as far away as Australia. The lodge was established in 1952, with St. Paul's St. Alban's Lodge as their mother lodge. The two amalgamated in 1974.

Bud Beattie was the first Worshipful Master of the Elk Point Lodge, with Dr. F. G. Miller serving as his secretary. The Lodge met in the old clinic building which was located on the corner of 50 Avenue and Highway 41 until 1978, when they moved to the United Church for a four year stay before moving to their present quarters in the Community Services Building. The lodge room is lined with pictures of every Worshipful Master from the more than forty years, outlining the proud history of the lodge and its members.

Another open house, this time for the general public, is planned for the spring of 1994.

Old friends and new in elementary library

"Old Friends, New Friends" is the 1993 Canadian Children's Book Festival theme at Elk Point Elementary School's library. A special display of books from the 'Rathbone' collection featured books published many years ago, which still form a part of the library's collection and are now being read by a new generation of students.

Just what books their parents, grandparents and other relatives enjoyed during their school days was the subject of a survey by the students, held in conjunction with the special week.

Another feature of the week was the naming of the award winner in last year's Book Festival book mark contest. Levi May incorporated Spiderman and his famous web into his unique design, entitled 'Swing Into Your Library and READ!' Levi's slogan was used as the school's theme for Book Festival Week.

This year, the students have been asked to name the '1993-94 Library Critter,' a cheerful and imaginative fellow who encourages students to enjoy the well-stocked library to the fullest.

The week wound up with the popular "Read-Aloud" sessions, with the Grade 5 and 6 students reading to Grade 1 and 2 students.

GRAZING RESERVE PROGRAM PUBLIC MEETING

The Alberta government is holding public meetings to review the services provided by Alberta Agriculture, Food and Rural Development's Public Lands Grazing Reserve Program. The purpose of the meeting is to discuss the long term financial viability and operation of the Grazing Reserve Program.

Interested parties who wish to be involved in the discussions are welcome to attend the meeting to be held on December 7, 1993 at 7:00 p.m. at the Centennial Senior Citizen Club, 5114-49 Street, St. Paul, Alberta. For regional cost revenue statement and for further information, please contact Gerry Ehler at 645-6336.

We would like to thank Doreen and Frank Mayner for adopting the magazine Good News. To adopt a magazine for the library, just donate the price of the subscription and we will order it. This is a good way of getting the magazine you want and not having to throw it out, as others will enjoy it as well.

We would like to thank

Mike O'Neill for bringing in his collection of football cards to be displayed in our display cases. Also, we welcome anyone who would like to show their crafts or art displays in our program room. For further information on the program room, please contact Diane Fraess at 724-3737.

There is a suggestion box at the front desk where patrons may put their ideas for books to purchase for the library.

Some trivia answers from last week's questions: The highest mountain? The highest mountain in the world is Mount Everest, in the Himalayas. In recent years its status has been challenged by R2 (formerly Godwin Austen) but the Research Council in Rome, Italy announced on October 23, 1987, that new satellite measurements restored Everest to primacy at 8863 m or 29,078 feet.

The oldest building? The oldest intact wooden building in the world is the temple of Horya (Hoyu-j) at Nara, Japan, dating from AD 670.

The earliest collection of library material? One of the earliest known collections of archival material was that of King Ashurbanipal, held at Nineveh, Iraq (688-627 BC). He had clay tablets referring to events and personages as far back as the Dynasty of Agonde, c. 23 BC. What do you think of that? These questions and answers can be found in The Guinness Book of Records 1992.

Parents! We have a collection of books for that young reader in your family. The following series of books is in the children's area: An I Can Read Book, Bank Street Ready-To-Read, Step Into Reading.

Some more videos donated by Pan Canadian Petroleum Ltd. have just been catalogued and put on the shelf: Disney's Duck Tales, Space Invaders, Just So Stories, Adventures In Wonderland, Helping Hands and Curious George Visits a Toy Store.

The Lioness Club has put a Santas Anonymous box in the library. Support this good cause by donating an unwrapped gift for a boy or girl in our community. The deadline for giving is December 15, 1993.

In Memoriam ORR, Clayton

In loving memory of our beloved son, brother and grandson, Clayton Orr, who passed away suddenly on November 30, 1986.

There will always be a heartache
And often a silent tear,
But always precious memories
Of the days when you were here.

We hold you close within our hearts,
And there you will remain,
To walk with us throughout our lives
Until we meet again.

No one knows the heartache
or what your parting cost,
But God in all his Glory
has gained what we have lost,
We had the world when we had you
A world of love and happiness too;
But now our world is mixed with tears,
Thank you Clayton for those wonderful years.

Clayton, even though you and your voice have moved on, we will remember you forever. Love always - Mom, Dad, Jeffrey,
Grandmas and Grandpas.

In Memory of Stan Uchman

Loving husband, father and grandfather, who passed away
December 4, 1988.

There will always be a heartache
And often a silent tear
But always precious memories
Of the day when you were here.

Always remembered and sadly missed by Anne, children and grandchildren.
